CONEJO VALLEY

YOUR MISSION SHOULD YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT IT...

“With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” -Jesus

OBJECTIVE

To build a culture of Young Life at ten high schools in the next five years by loving kids and Christ—where every student is pursued, loved and given the opportunity to start a relationship with God.

"We can effectively impact the next generation." -Stephanie, volunteer

SEEKING

Believers who are passionate about reaching the minds and hearts of lost teenagers with the truth of Jesus Christ.

STRATEGY

- 1 Train and send missionaries to build friendships and earn the right to be heard with teenagers.
- 2 Disciple high school students to represent Christ and give them practical opportunities to share the Gospel.
- 3 Develop a committed prayer network of community leaders, individuals and families.
- 4 Keep in step with the vision of local pastors and churches.

YEAR ONE GOALS

- ▶ Train 25+ volunteer leaders
- ▶ Train 20+ student leaders
- ▶ Recruit 10+ committee members
- ▶ Build a flagship club with a strong reputation
- ▶ Develop 6 campaigner groups
- ▶ Take 100+ students to camps
- ▶ Participate in 3 church events
- ▶ Partner with 15 local churches
- ▶ Launch CLU College Life discipleship program
- ▶ Increase community support to 70+ partners
- ▶ Raise $92K to finance mission

OPPORTUNITIES

- ▶ VOLUNTEER LEADER These volunteers work directly with students—building friendships and earning the right to be heard. They also participate in club, campaigners and camp. Volunteers span from college students to school teachers to working professionals.
- ▶ COMMITTEE MEMBER These community leaders are the backbone of the ministry. They help with fundraising, care for leaders and staff support.
- ▶ COMMUNITY PARTNER These individuals and families hail from near and far and support the mission in prayer and finances. It is these donors that make the mission possible.
- ▶ CHURCH PARTNER These representatives work to bridge the gap between the mission and the local church. They provide service opportunities for students and leaders as well as promote Young Life. These partners also help the staff to reach fundraising goals.

“It is great to share the truth about Jesus.”
-Anthony, staff

FINANCIAL NEEDS

Individuals, families, businesses and churches who give to Young Life make the mission possible. Donations go towards citywide club and events, staff and volunteer training, student discipleship, camp scholarships and staff support. Please prayerfully consider partnering with Young Life by becoming a monthly donor or making an annual gift. As we work to reach our 2008-2009 fundraising goal of $92,000 please consider one of these gift options. Any gift amount is appreciated!
